This week's learning.

- Nursery have been retelling the story of Little Red Riding Hood. They also baked cakes to give to their grandma.
- Reception enjoyed celebrating the Coronation last week, having a special visitor from the Royal Palace, dressing in royal clothes, and having a Coronation tea party!
- Year 1 have begun learning about Fractions. They have learnt how to recognize half of a quantity.
- Year 2 have been planning and writing a recount about their trip to Chatsworth House.
- Year 3 had a fantastic time at Brockhole learning all about the environment, animals and their habitats, and the effects tourism has on the Lake District.
- Year 4 made complete circuits using wires, lamps, batteries and buzzers.
- Year 5 went to The Lowry to see a live performance of An Unexpected Twist – a modern day retelling of Oliver Twist
- Year 6 have done their absolute best in their SATs tests.

Celebrations!

Well done Year 6 who have worked very hard all year in preparation for their SATs tests. They enjoyed a delicious breakfast and felt proud to show off their grammar, reading and math's skills.

Coronation
We enjoyed a lovely Coronation celebration last Wednesday, with cake and photos with some very special visitors!

Well done and thank you to Scarlett who has raised an amazing £590 for the school nurture hub, as well as donating her hair to the Princess Trust. She met the Lord Mayor of Manchester who recently visited our school, and was thrilled to meet the bears her donation paid for.

Should adults choose which books you read?

What else in your life do adults get to choose and do you think this is fair? Why/why not?

If you could only read one type of book forever, what type would it be and why?

When you read, do you prefer it when a book is easy to understand or when it's challenging?

Upcoming dates...
