

Explorers

Sacagawea

What was their childhood like?

- When she was 12, she was taken by another tribe and sold to a man who became her husband.

What expedition did they go on?

- Lewis & Clark expedition.

What did they do on the expedition?

- Translated the Shoshone language.
- Found edible plants.
- Made shoes and clothing.

How were they remembered?

- Straight after the expedition, she was not rewarded and she died soon after.
- A long time after the expedition, people remembered how important her part was.

Michael Collins

- He grew up wanting to be a pilot.

- Apollo 11.

- He piloted the Columbia while the Eagle landed on the Moon.
- He made sure they all came home safely.

- Straight after the expedition, he was treated like a hero. He met Queen Elizabeth II.
- A long time after the expedition, he is known as the forgotten astronaut because people only remember the two astronauts who walked on the Moon.