The tour will take place during the school day, with 45 children attending the 10:00am tour and the remaining 45 children attending the tour at 1:30pm. (All children will have lunch at school as normal).

During the tour, the children will discover the best of Manchester in a 90 minute tour, planned to take them around some of the city's key sights including the Town Hall, National Football Museum, Manchester Library and much more.

The cost for this trip is £5 per person. We apologise for the late notification of this trip but we were able to secure a place due to a last minute cancellation.
