

Land Ahoy! – Knowledge Organiser – History and Geography - Year 2

Key dates		Key facts to learn
1623	The Caribbean became prime ground for piracy	The world's continents are: North America, South America, Asia, Europe, Antarctica, Australasia and Africa.
1650-1680	The 'Golden Age' for piracy.	The world's oceans are: The Pacific, Atlantic, Southern Ocean, Indian Ocean and Arctic Ocean.
1695	Pirate Captain Henry Every managed to capture one of the biggest loots of all time.	Human features include: city, town, village, factory, farm and house.
1690's	The second stage of "Golden Age of Piracy", when the pirates based in Caribbean started performing "Pirate Round" by sailing to the Indian and Red sea to rob the traders that carried immense riches from the India to the Middle East and Europe.	Physical features include: beach, cliff, coast, forest, hill, mountain, sea, ocean, river, soil, valley, vegetation, season and weather.

Key Vocabulary

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pirate – A person who attacks and robs ships at sea. • Continents – Very large pieces of land on earth. • Oceans – A very large area of sea. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Human features – Things in the landscape that are made by humans. • Physical features – Things in the landscape that are natural. • Sources – Something that tells us about history. • North, West, South and East – Four directions. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Key – A table that explains the symbols used on a map. • Maps – A diagram of an area of land or sea. • Aerial photographs - Photographs taken from the air. • Past – Something that has already happened. • Present – Something that is happening now.
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------